

Richard Mifflin Kleberg, Jr. Family Lectureship on

Grazing Management

March 13-16, 2018 || Ardmore, OK

Tuesday, March 13, 2018

8:00 AM • Sign In and Welcome

8:30 AM • Basic Ecology
• Resource management principles
• How grass grows
• How to think through developing a grazing plan

12:00 PM LUNCH

- Visit Noble McMillan Ranch
 - Measuring forage production
 - Developing a stocking rate
 - Resource inventory of the ranch
- Hands on applied grazing project (HQ)

5:00 PM ADJOURN

Wednesday, March 14, 2018

8:00 AM • Forage types and management strategies for each
• Applied grazing management
• Use of Noble technologies to develop a grazing plan
• Fertility and pest management
• Managing gaps in forage production

12:00 PM LUNCH

- Visit Noble Pasture Demonstration Farm
 - New sensors and other technology
 - Introduced pasture management
 - Grazing strategies
 - Pasture management
 - Fencing demo
 - Review of research projects
- Work on McMillan grazing plan project
- Hands on applied grazing project

5:00 PM ADJOURN

Richard Mifflin Kleberg, Jr. Family Lectureship on

Grazing Management

March 13-16, 2018 || Ardmore, OK

Thursday, March 15, 2018

- 8:00 AM
- Visit Chuck Coffey Ranch
 - Native rangeland management
 - Grazing strategies
 - Water development
 - Brush management
 - Prescribed Fire
 - Monitoring techniques

12:00 PM LUNCH

- Work on McMillan grazing plan project
- Hands on applied grazing project

5:00 PM ADJOURN

Friday, March 16, 2018

- 8:30 AM
- Wrap up McMillan grazing plan development
 - Grazing plan presentations and discussion
 - What did you miss and would like on future webinars

12:00 PM ADJOURN